

Young Adults Coordinator

Volunteer Position

Based in Castle Hill, Sydney

Open Doors has been helping people follow Jesus all over the world, no matter the cost, for over 60 years.

We want to see all people in the Australian church disciplined, mentored and strengthened in faith by the persecuted church; that they may be united with our brothers and sisters around the world, through prayer, support, awareness and lessons.

This is a unique chance to be a part of this process. We are looking for skilled and passionate Young Adults Coordinator/s to build connections with Youth and Young Adults, to strategise effective communication with this demographic and to carry out this strategy.

This role is a volunteer position and may be performed by a single person or a small team. The role does not require fixed days of work and can be flexible to work with your other commitments.

Key responsibilities include:

- Assisting Open Doors to ensure our initiatives are relevant and appealing to young adults.
- Developing approaches to engage Young Adult communities and individuals with the persecuted church.
- Speaking at churches, events and conferences that include young adults to raise awareness of the persecuted church.
- Assisting Open Doors in establishing, reviewing and continuously improving our relationship with young adults.
- Attending training and presenting talks ahead of time to ensure consistency with Open Doors' vision and mission.

To be successful in this role you will have:

- A strong and active Christian faith.
- Passion and enthusiasm to serve persecuted Christians.
- A heart to see youth and young adults disciplined.
- Strong public speaking experience (some training provided).
- Proven experience in relationship building and communication.
- High attention to detail, with a strong sense of accountability.
- Excellent verbal communication skills.
