United Arab Emirates

About

In the United Arab Emirates, Islam influences everyday life. Christians are prohibited from living out their faith in public. They will also be punished if caught sharing the gospel with others.

Christians who are not citizens can be deported for evangelising and are limited in how they can worship as the government actively censors Christian content online. Despite the pressure, God is still moving and revealing Himself to people through dreams, visions and through His Word.

Did You Know?

The majority of Christians in this nation are not Emiratis. Most are migrant workers and foreigners that come from Asia, Africa, and a few Western nations.

Pray

Pray that despite the pressure, God will strengthen His church in the United Arab Emirates.

Praise God many people are still coming to know him through dreams and visions.
